

BOING's sizing is based on your wrist or ankle circumference, the sizes are not based on the inner circumference of the bracelet. All measurements are in centimetres.

How to Measure

- Using a measuring tape or piece of string and ruler, wrap the tape /string snugly around where you would prefer your bracelet to sit, take note of the circumference of your wrist / ankle.

- For a perfect fit BOING knows exactly what additional cm/mm are need, additional consideration has already been taken on the thickness of the rope / leather or metal. Please do not add in any extra slack or your bracelet will be too big.
- If you fall between sizes it is always best to choose the bigger option, for example if your wrist size is 18.4cm choose the 19cm X-Large.
